Masonic.

LODGES. Monday—Dawson, No. 16, M. M.; Stans-bury, No. 24, business followed by entertainment.

esday—Acacia, No. 18, business; King David, No. 28, special, M. M. by Masters' Association; Takoma, No. 20, F. C. Wednesday Harmony, No. 17, special, 5:45 p.m., F. C.; regular, 7:30 p.m., M. M. School of Instruction; St. John's Mite Association.

Thursday—Naval, No. 4, F. C.; Hiram, No. 10, E. A.; La Fayette, No. 19, social. Friday-Lebanon, No. 7, F. C. ROYAL ARCH CHAPTERS.

Monday-Mount Vernon, No. 3, mark. Tuesday-Mount Horeb, No. 7. Friday-School of Instruction. KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERIES.

ROYAL AND SELECT MASTERS.

ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE. Tuesday—Evangelist Chapter, Rose Croix, business.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SATURDAY SHRINE-GROTTO BASE BALL GAME, American League Park.

This afternoon at 3 p.m. the religious services at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home will be in charge of Capitol Royal Arch Chapter, No. 11, which has invited Myron M. Parket Lodge, No. 27, F. A. A. M., and Bethlehm Chapter, No. 7, Order of the Eastern Star, including the choir of the latter, to unite with it. The services will be conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the latter degree and the star of the Masonic change in the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the property of the Grand Lodge, No. 28, has the F. C. degree carded for June 29.

The Hugh T. Stevenson, grand change in the first of the Masonic change of the Grand Lodge, No. 24, will have the E. A. degree, with its and the conducted by Rev. C. C. McCoy, Rev. Hugh R. McCarby, Conductive the thought of which will get the correlation of the Masonic chroles of the Masonic ous services at the Masonic and East-interest in the occasion a special stinction in the way of entertain-int.

Dr. Mark F. Finley, past master of ram Lodge, No. 10, has been appoint the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the form and a flexibility appointment of the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the form and a flexibility appointment of the filled by appointment by the grand master instead of by election, as here the form the fill by a set charge was that one of the captains had corralled the Chinese jade goddess that was missing for a while, to bring victory to his team. "Andy" Walker for the grotto and Capt. Louis C. Wilborn for the shrine are credited with being the responsible directors of the respective teams.

details of the annual base ball game, is composed of Worshipful Masters Clarence E. Williams, Federal; Harry E. Sengstack. Columbia; Charles C. Sharah, Naval; Herbert A. Williams, Potomac; Charles E. Alexander, Lebanon; William Clabaugh, The New Jerusalem; Frank M. Scott, Hiram; Frank B. Ketchum, St. John's; Frank A. Tuck, National; James S. McCarthy, Washington Centennial; James B. Schick, Benjamin B. French; Perry P. Patrick, Dawson; J. R. Zimmerman, Harmony; William E. Springer, Acacia; Eli Swavely, La Fayette; David F. Linthicum, Hope; Simon Bube, Anacostia; Charles E. Lightfoot, George C. Whiting; Archie R. R. Onyun, Pentalpha; Ezekiel J. Ayers, Stansbury; William Wimnel, Arminius; Lucien V. Yung, Dsiris; Galt W. Bowen, Myron M. Parker; Frank N. Chase, King David; Parry A. Stacy, Takoma; John W. happell, William R. Singleton: Archifald J. Rose, King Solomon; Clement W. Huske, Tempie-Noyes; Wilbur S. Sauer, Mount Pleasant; T. Homer Hall, East Gate.

"Billy" Betts, who acquired wide fame as a professional umpire, but latterly has been softening his disposition as worthy patron of Brookland Chapter of the Eastern Star, and Charley King, a promising amateur of Washington, will be the umpires. Roe Fulkerson and William F. Gude, both sages of wide experience in grotto and shrine, are going to do the "Sawyer stunts" on the coaching lines, and Nobles John E. Shoemaker and J. B. Callahan will be advisers to the shrine coach. Provision has been made also, it is announced, both for doctors and clergymen to meet possible emergencies, and Potentate L. Whiting Estes and Monarch George H. Emmons have given full be on hand and ready for use upon made that special boxes of "excuses, breaks, alibis," and other useful terms to the losing team and its friends will be on hand and ready for use upon cail. President Schick of the Masters' Association, however, is authority for the statement that "real base ball" will be played, and "an honest result" reached sometime before nightfall. The entire proceeds of the game are 2: be given to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

The weekly announcement of Illustrious Potentate L. Whiting Estes of the Grand Priories of the cannot be played, and "an honest result" reached sometime before nightfall. The entire proceeds of the game are 2: be given to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

The weekly announcement of Illustrious Potentate L. Whiting Estes of Adman Temple, Mystic Shrine, contains the first profess of the commanderies in Alaison, will be present.

The weekly announcement of Illustrious Potentate L. Whiting Estes of Almas Temple, Mystic Shrine, contains much with reference to the ball game Saturday. Tom toms, zakubars and sacred rattling locusts, it states, are to be supplied to the nobility that they may testify in true Arabic fashion their pleasure or their pain at the vicissitudes of ephemeral life during the progress of the game. Sheik Charles A. Stevens, chief melodist of the Oriental Band, the announcement states, has been ordered by special firman of the exalted elect to play the sacred melody, "Koiohatchie," when the shrine team has won the game.

The weekly announcement of Illustrious Potental L. Whiting Estes of the Grand Priories of Ireland and Canada, will be made note-once will be made note-once will be the centennial gathering of the templar program of entertainment has been provided, the most elaborate, probably, in the convention history of Los Angeles, Basides the great Knights Templar parade is which will appear commanderies from Call-fornia to Maine and from Misnesota to Texas, there will be a dasxling series of the commanderies of the Commanderies and the Philippines, at which, whip, No. 17, degrees.

Wednesday—Rethlehem, No. 7, and Friend-ship, No. 11, tenth anniversary celebration.

Thursday—Esther, No. 5, degrees and program of entertainment has been provided, the most elaborate, probably, in the convention history of Los Angeles, Basides the great Knights Templar parade is which will appear commanderies from Call-fornia to Maine and from Misnesota to Texas, there will be a dasxling series of electrical pageants and a floral process.

The master of Stansbury Lodge, No. 24. Mr. E. J. Ayers, announces that after a short business session tomorrow evening the doors of the lodge will be opened to the families and friends of the members to witness several reels of moving pictures of an interesting nature and for the first time shown. The pictures taken during the recent automobile trip of the lodge to Frederick will be on view. The show of pictures will start at 8 p.m.

At a special communication of King David Lodge, No. 28, to be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., when the M. M. degree presented by its past masters.

Anacostia Lodge, No. 21, next Monday evening, June 19, will have the M. M. degree presented by its past masters.

At a special communication of King David Lodge, No. 28, to be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., when the M. M. degree will be presented by the Masters' Association of 1916, Grand Master William W. Jermane will be in attendance and a "royal time" is assured all who will journey out to Brookland that evening. The electric cars on G street and North Capitol marked "Brookland" pass the door of the temple. All brethren are invited.

Some of the Knights Templar commanderies have "let down the requirement" as to uniform, thus making it less expensive to take the Templar Sibley Hospital, following an operation for appendicitis, is reported highly satisfactory.

Lebanon Lodge, No. 7, has the F. C. degree scheduled for Friday evening and the M. M. degree, with refreshments, at a special June 30, at 7:30 p.m. Friday evening, besides the degree, the lodge will have a talk on its history by Past Master Blair McKenzie. Lebanon Lodge was chartered October 8, 1811, and the Grand Lodge of the District was organized the same year, February is to supplant the annual excursion of Almas Temple, is now under consideration by a special committee. Two locations are under consideration, the old race track at Benning and the big amphitheater at Glen Echo. Immediately following the ball game the barbecue will be pushed along with the preparations for the flight of the Almas caravan to Buffalo for the session of the Imperial Council.

Namel. Arminius. Lucien V. Yung. Darits: Gait W. Bowen, Myron M. Parker; Frank N. Chase, King David; Farry A. Stacy, Takoma; John W. Chase, King David; Farry A. Stacy, Takoma; John W. Chase, King David; Farry A. Stacy, Takoma; John W. Chase, King David; Farry A. Stacy, Takoma; John W. Chase, King David; Farry A. Stacy, Takoma; John W. Chase, King David; Farry A. Stacy, Takoma; John W. Chase, King David; Farry C. Chase, King David; Chase, Cha

An invitation has been received from Acca Temple of Richmond, for a visit from Almas Temple, "to break bread and eat sait," in return for the vist of Acca to Washington May 29. Potentate Estes states, however, that acceptance of it will be deferred until after the annual pilgrimage to Buffalo.

The master of Stansbury Lodge, No. 24, Mr. E. J. Ayers, announces that after a short business session tomor-

Benjamin B. French Lodge, No. 15, will have the E. A. degree June 19. Worshipful Master William Clabaugh of the New Jerusalem Lodge, No. 9, and several past masters of Benjamin B. French Lodge assisted in the M. M. degree last Monday evening, when the relationship of the candidates made the degree especially interesting.

Kallipolis Grotto Friday evening at Chamber of Commerce Hall discussed final plans relative to the Supreme Council convention to be held in Detroit June 19-21. From present indications a large delegation from Washington will make the trip. The route will be via the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, leaving Washington at midnight next Saturday. The grotto band and drill corps will accompany the Kallipolis contingent and take part in the monster parade of grottoes in the convention city.

players will leave Washington at 1.30 p.m.

Plans are well in hand for the excursion to Chesapeake Beach July 12. Thursday, June 29, the grotto glee club will give a large party. "From Georgetown to Nowhere," leaving at 5 and returning at 11 p.m.

The grotto Friday evening also discussed plans for "All-Masonic Day" at Camp Good Will. July 6. An automobile parade for the camp will leave Masonic Temple that day at 5 p.m. for the camp bent upon nothing but giving the children "the time of their lives," and, incidentally, adding to the fund that will make children happy there who otherwise might not know happiness this summer at least.

Order of Eastern Star.

Monday Columbia, No. 15, program of entertainment. entertainment.

Tuesday—Bethlehem, No. 7, and Friendship, No. 17, degrees.

Wednesday—Naomi, No. 3, business and program. Brockland, No. 11, tenth anniversary celebration.

Thursday—Esther, No. 5, degrees and program of entertainment.

THOMPSON AND BARR. MIDDLE ROW-SMITH, AVERY (CAPTAIN), WHITING, MILANS. FRONT ROW-BALL. BELL KRONHEIM, GRAHAM AND FLETCHER.

OWER-KALLIPOLIS GROTTO, VEILED PROPHETS, TEAM. STANDING-GUDE, HILDERBRAND, SAYER AND WALKER. SITTING-MCCARTHY (CAPTAIN), DUVALL, ROEPKE, FOLEY,

Matron Mrs. Lizzie K. Webb and Worthy Patron Samuel V. Cusack have invited the matrons and patrons of 1916 to be guests of the evening. The visit to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, which was to have been made. visit to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, which was to have been made last Wednesday evening by the chap-ter's board of managers, was post-poned because of the inclement weather.

Brookland Chapter, No. 11, will celebrate its tenth anniversary Wednesday evening in Masonic Temple, Brookland. A general invitation to members of the order to be present has been given by Worthy Matron Anna Broderick and Worthy Patron William G. Betts. A feature of the last meeting of the chapter was the welcome given Worthy Matron Broderick by Worthy Patron Betts on her return to the chapter following her illness. Past Patron George Stranahan made an address on "Fraternalism" and refreshments were served after the close of the chapter. Brookland Chapter, No. 11, will cele-

Friendship Chapter, No. 17, will have degree work Tuesday evening, in Masonic Hall, Tenleytown, and members of the order are invited to be present. Worthy Matron Nellie C. Flather has announced that Friendship Chapter's drill team will give its drill at the meeting of Ascension Chapter, No. 20, Friday evening. The sewing circle will meet Wednesday, at the residence of Nettle B. Giles.

ing had a large number of members and visitors, including Grand Chapter officers and Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Blasdel officers and Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Diabut. of Parsons, Kan. During the business session Past Patron W. C. Zimmerman, Summer's approach and the desire for a vacation from the winter's activities was clearly shown by the hearty assent given a motion to adjourn until September at the well attended meeting of the auxiliary home board of Ruth Chapter, No. 1, held Thursday at the home of Past Matron Mrs. Rose Anderson. The hostess deviated somewhat from the regular plan of the auxiliary meetings by inviting the members to luncheon, served in a dining room decorated in keeping with the season, after which business was transacted and the thanks of the auxiliary extended to Mrs. Anderson. Before adieus were said the chairman, Past Matron Mrs. Clara L. Hughes, wished the members a pleasant and restful vacation.

Among those present were Grand Conductress Cora Mayberry, Grand Associate Conductress Bena Barnhart, Grand Marshal Bernard and Grand Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also well represented by present and past matrons and patrons of the order. Refreshments were served in the bandworthy Matron Minnie E. Strickler and Worthy Patron Charles W. Ashford announce that degrees will be conferred at the meeting, June 22, to which all members of the fraternity are invited.

Odd Fellows.

Meday Files No. 11 degree, Brand Associate Conductress Cora Mayberry, Grand Associate Conductress Bena Barnhart, Grand Marshal Bernard and Grand Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also well represented by present and Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also well represented by present and Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also well represented by present and Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also well represented by present and Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also well represented by present and Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also well represented by present and Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also well represented by present and Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also well represented by present and Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also well represented by present and Sentinel Milans. The jurisdiction was also Summer's approach and the desire

after the program and dancing followed until a late hour.

"Fraternalism" and refreshments were served after the close of the chapter. Columbia Chapter, No. 15, which meets at 14th and Kenyon streets northwest, will have no degree work tomorrow evening, but a short program of entertainment has been prepared for the occasion, to which all members of the order of this and other jurisdictions are invited. Worthy Matron Tillie C. Chauncey has asked all members who desire to participate in the automobile parade preceding the ball game Wednesday afternoon to communicate with Worthy Patron S. G. de Lesdernier. D. C. Leahy and B. E. Harrison, the committee in charge.

The Floral Circle met with its president Monday and decided to call off further meetings until September.

Friendship Chapter, No. 17, will have degree work Tuesday evening, in Masonic Hall, Tenleytown, and members of the order are invited to be present. Worthy Matron Nellie C. Flather has announced that Friendship Chapter's drill team will give its drill at the meeting of Ascension Chapter, No. 20, Friday evening. The sewing circle will meet Wednesday, at the residence of Nettle B. Giles.

Ascension Chapter, No. 20, will have a social evening Friday, to which Worthy Matron Amelia Eberly and Worthy Patron John A. Hartman have generally invited the members of the order. A program of entertainment will be presented. Ascension Chapter at its last meeting entertained the officers and members of East Gate Chapter, No. 21. Among its guests were Past Grand Matron Jesse W. Cowles, Grand Patron Ben W. Murch, Grand Lecturer Mary E. Teachum and Grand Warder Minerva R. Crawford, all of whom made addresses. Mrs. McBeth of East Gate Chapter recited and Mrs. Richards of William F. Hunt Chapter sang. Refreshments were served.

Ruth Chapter, No. 1, Monday evening had a large number of members.

Fidelity Chapter, No. 19, Tuesday evening entertained its members and visitors with "A Lodge of Sister Ma-sons," under the direction of Mrs. Mar-

Communications for any of these columns must be received by The Star not later than noon Thursday of each week. Items which relate to events that occur after that time, or contain new and important announcements that cannot be sent in earlier, will be received up to noon Saturday, but not later.

Communications written on both sides of the paper will not be accepted. All communications must be signed with the names and addresses of the persons sending them.

visit to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. The program of entertainment presented included a solo, Mrs. Hattie M. Hyer; dance, Mrs. Wheeler; monologue, Mrs. Anna B. Wiley, and the serving of refreshments in the new dlning room.

Esther Chapter, No. 5, will have the degrees Thursday evening, with a program of entertainment afterward As this will be the last meeting of the Asthis will be the last meeting of the Asthis will be the last meeting of the Asthis will be the last meeting of the Tron Mary J. Birgfeld and Worthy Patron Mary J. Birgfeld and Worthy Patron Edgar B. Merritt, it is said, expect to entertain a large number of members and visitors. The annual automobile ride to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home by the auxiliary home board of the chapter will take place tomorrow evening, and is in the Mason the Auxiliary More than the Chapter will take place tomorrow evening and is in the Mason the Auxiliary More do not own machines, he place tomorrow evening, and is in the Mason the Auxiliary More do not own machines, he place tomorrow evening, and is in the Mason the Mason the Auxiliary More do not own machines, he place tomorrow evening, and is in the Mason the Mason the Mason the Mason the Mason do not own machines, he place to morrow evening, and is in the Mason the Mason inces, he seats in close of younger the engram arranged by the associate matron, Miss Anna Lander. This included a vocal solo, Mrs. Lillian Benefit; violing; vocal served ing fol- the served ing fol- de desire the served in gram arranged by the associate chapter charles of the served ing fol- the served ing fol- the served in gram arranged by the chapter with the served in gram arranged by the associate chapter charles of the served ing fol- the served ing fol- the served in gram arranged by the chapter with the served in gram arranged by the served in gram arranged by the served in served in served in the served in served in the served in served in the served in served in served in the served in the served in served in served in the served in served in the served in served in served in the served in served in served in the served in served in LODGES. Monday-Union, No. 11, degree: Beacon, No. 15, and Langdon, No. 26, busi-Tuesday—Amity, No. 27, degree; Wash-ington, No. 6, and Golden Rule, No. 21, business. Wednesday—Eastern, No. 7, and Federal City, No. 20, degree; Harmony, No. 9, business. Thursday—Columbian, No. 10, degree; Covenant, No. 13, and Salem, No. 22, business. Friday—Phoenix, No. 28, degree; Cen-tral, No. 1, and Metropolis, No. 16, business.

ENCAMPMENTS. Tuesday-Fred D. Stuart, No. 7, busi-Wednesday-Columbian, No. 1, degree. Friday—Magenenu, No. 4, business and open social. PATRIARCHS MILITANT.

The "all-star printers degree team" will hold a full dress rehearsal Wed-nesday in Federal City Lodge, No. 20,

Saturday Canton Washington, No. 1, and complete arrangements for conferring the degree upon a large class of candidates, many being printers. Past Grand Capt. D. V. Chislolm, superintendant of work in government printing office, chairman of the comnittee on arrangements, will be assisted by Past Grand Master J. H. Woo and Past Grands Charles Garrells Henry W. Weber and J. I. Jones. The "rustling" committee and the committee on "working your way" have decided not to make any report to the lodge, but to produce some surprises at the time the degree is conferred The lodge unanimously decided that the program must be original and in harmony with the occasion. The committee on purchasing furniture for the dining room of Odd Fel-lows' Home, composed of Past Grands R. T. McMullen, A. J. S. Dixon and J. E. Chamberlain of Covenant Lodge, No. 13, will submit a report Thursday even-ing. The committee in charge of selling the lodge real estate will receive and submit bids for the hall.

Columbia Lodge, No. 10, conferred the first degree on a class of candidates Thursday evening, under the direction of C. D. Shackelford, degree director. Noble Grand Ernest A. Swingle has announced that the second degree will be conferred on this class next Thursday evening.

MASONIC BASE BALL TEAMS TO MEET IN GAME JUNE 17. Royse stated he had received an invi-

Grand Patriarch Col. P. H. Leary and officers of the Grand Encampment will pay a social visit to Magenenu Encampment, No. 4. Friday evening. After the close of the regular business session an open meeting will be held for a social hour, to which members of the subordinate lodges are invited. The committee on program will present a program of entertainment.

Memorial exercises will be held in the auditorium of I. O. O. F. Hall Sun-day evening, June 18, at 8 o'clock. Grand Warden J. T. Humphreys states Grand Warden J. T. Humphreys states the memorial committee has completed all arrangements for the exercises. Rev. C. Ernest Granger, past grand of Mount Pleasant Lodge, No. 29, will deliver the address and a new memorial ceremony will be used for the first time. The membership of all branches of the order will join in the exercises. The relatives and friends of deceased members are invited to be present.

bers are invited to be present.

Eastern Lodge, No. 7, will confer the second degree Wednesday evening. The degree team will be in charge of Degree Director W. E. Lawson. Last Wednesday evening the first degree was conferred. W. E. Lawson, president of the Odd Fellows Duckpin League, gave an account of the games played during the season just closed and stated he had received many requests from members of the several lodges to organize more teams early in the fall. Several lodges, he said, wish to place two teams in the league instead of one, as was done the past year.

Rebekah Lodges.

Monday Eather, No. 5, degree; Euth, No. 2, degree team rehearsal. Tuesday Ladles' Auxiliary of Canton Washington, No. 1. Wednesday-Mount Pleasant, No. 9, degree. Thursday-Friendship, No. 8, degree. Friday-Miriam, No. 6, degree.

President Belle M. Carter of the assembly has announced the following past noble grands as installing officers for the several Rebekah lodges for the term beginning July 1: Naomi, No. 1, Mrs. Ida Brimer; Ruth, No. 2. Mrs. Annie Cole; Martha Washington, No. 2. Mrs. Annie Cole; Martha Washington, No. 3, musician, Mrs. Lillian Hubbard Riverside Review, No. 6; captain of guard. Mrs. Lols E. Coles. district Grace Matthews; Esther, No. 5, Mrs. Ploris Nalley; Miriam, No. 6, Mrs. Alice C. Doves; Fidelity, No. 7, Mrs. Katie Sample; Friendship, No. 8, Misse Mary Murry; Mount Pleasant, No. 9, President Belle M. Carter and officers of the Rebekah Assembly.

Naomi Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, held a social Monday evening, at which a litlecture on "Protection" was given by Mrs. Ella Hickcox, with readings by Mrs. Alice D. Brewster, Battimory Review, No. 3; sentine, Mrs. Alice D. Brewster, Battimory Review, No. 3; sentine, Mrs. Alice D. Brewster, Battimory Review, No. 3; sentine, Mrs. Alice D. Brewster, Battimory Review, No. 3; musician, Mrs. Lilian, Mrs. Alice D. Brewster, Battimory Review, No. 3; musician, Mrs. Lilian, Mrs.

ocial Monday evening, at which a literary program was rendered under direction of Mrs. V. Estelle Yoakley, past noble grand, chairman of the entertainment committee. Those participating were Miss Anna L. Haussener, Mrs. Alice S. Thomas, Mrs. V. Estelle Yoakley and Mrs. Ellen Stanley of Newburyport, Mass. Visitors who addressed the meeting were: Mrs. Annie E. Grigsby, past president of the Rebekah Assembly; Mrs. Flora O. Schwinger and Mrs. Laura E. B. McChesney, marshal and chaplain, respectively, of the Rebekah Assembly, and Miss Mamie F. Kemp of Miriam Rebekah Lodge, No. 6. This was the last entertainment during the term of the present noble grand, Mrs. Minnie Draeger. Refreshments were served.

The Assembly Home Circle met in the reception room of I. O. O. F. Hall Wednesday evening, and officers were elected as follows: President, Miss Mollie E. Edmonston; vice president, Mrs. Katie Morrison; secretary, Miss Emma T. Strobel, and treasurer, Mrs. Roberta E. Volland. A rising vote of thanks to Mrs. Anna Billings, the retiring president, was extended by the members present. Mrs. Billings having served as president from the date of the organization of the circle, in September, 1914, declined the nomination for the present term. The records show that during the administration of Mrs. Billings over $600 was raised for the benefit of the home and charitable purposes. The circle decided to hold an old-time basket picnic July 13 at Chesapeake Beach.

Fidelity Lodge, No. 7, met Tuesday evening. Officers were nominated for the ensuing term, and several applications for membership were received. At the close of the meeting a social meeting was held and a program was rendered consisting of instrumental and vocal numbers, recitations and several select readings by a visiting member from Massachusetts. President Belle M. Carter of the Rebekah Assembly, Grand Master W. J. Hope, Past President Annie E. Grigsby and Deputy Grand Master I. R. Schwinger were among the many visitors present. The occasion was the second anniversary of the institution of Fidelity Lodge. The meeting closed with the reading of birthday cards and refreshments.

Dorcas Rebekah Lodge, No. 4, conferred the degree Friday evening upon several candidates. The degree team was under the direction of the degree director, Eva M. Schlaick. Past Grand Dement of Federal City Lodge, chairman of the joint excursion committee, addressed the lodge and gave an outline of the program. Past Noble Grand Josie Ison, chairman of the judiciary committee, gave an account of the work rendered to the Rebekah Assembly, and Past Noble Grand Annie Cole, chairman of the Assembly printing committee, told of the work of her committee.

The ladies' auxiliary of Canton Washington, No. 1, will meet Tuesday evening. June 13, in the canton room of I. O. O. F. Hall. New members will be admitted at this meeting and committees appointed to arrange for summer socials and moonlight parties on the river and for accompanying Canton Washington on its excursion to Chesapeake Beach. The auxiliary is now entering upon its second year, and, it is said, has rendered valuable assistance to Canton Washington. The membership comprises the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of members of the canton.

Esther Lodge, No. 5, will meet to-morrow evening, when the degree team under the direction of Degree Director Past Noble Grand Henrietta Werner will confer the degree. Degree Di-rector Werner recently reorganized the degree team. Noble Grand Sadie Ad-ams will complete her term as noble grand July 1.

Noble Grand Katie Morrison has announced that, after the nomination of officers the degrees will be conferred on a class of candidates by the degree team of Miriam Lodge at the meeting of Mount Pleasapt Rebekah Lodge, No. 3, Wednesday evening, in Masonic Hall, fourteenth and Kenyon streets northwest. She has extended a general invitation to all members of the order to attend. Arrangements have been completed for a theater benefit, to be held Wednesday evening, June 21.

Independent Order Jonadabs Hope Council, No. 1, Monday evening

onferred the degrees on one candidate Noble Grand Ernest A. Swingle has announced that the second degree will be conferred on this class next Thursday evening.

Canton Washington, No. 1, conferred the degree Saturday evening upon several candidates, Maj. W. J. Rogers being in charge of the work. Cant.

Grand Secretary Elmore W. Sanderson presided under good of the order. Past Worthy Chief Spellman was selected by yote of the council to act as tosstmaster for the open meeting and "ladies" night" tomorrow evening. The entertainment committee reported the program will consist of vocal and instrumental music, with refreshments. Grand Secretary Elmore W. Sanderso

Knights of the Maccabes will be he in the Masonic Temple at 5th and streets northeast Tuesday evening at o'clock. Rev. Earle Wilfley

National Tent will give an end ment and smoker to its membe their male friends tomorrow e Two applications for membership read at the last meeting. Initiative be postponed to the third meeting in the month on account of the sm

Woman's Benefit Association.

Gayly bedecked cars left Washington Thursday with more than 200 white-Association of the Maccabees, delegations of members of the Balti-Odd Fellows' Temple for the rally of the Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees. Miss Etta M. England, of Norfolk, Va., supreme sentinel, welcomed into the organization the large class of initiates. Eight commanders of the District of Columbia, with Mrs. A. M. Weich, the district deputy; the fifteen Maryland commanders, with Mrs. Lola E. Coles, the district deputy; Mrs. Lola E. Coles, the district deputy; Mrs. Jeannette Jones. Mrs. Bertie S. Howard and Mrs. Katherine E. Cordis, deputies, were presented by Mrs. Mahal. T. LaRue, deputy supreme commanders visitors were present from all parts of Maryland, Pennsylvania and Delaware and the very large delegation from Washington, D. C. G. H. Hayes, deputy supreme commander of the Knights of Maccabees, delivered an address of "Fraternalism" in the evening.

The second degree was exemplified by the commanders of the Knights of Maccabees, delivered an address of "Fraternalism" in the evening.

The second degree was exemplified by the commanders of the Englishmer reviews with a union guard tas, Mrs. Lola E. Coles, captain. The officers for the rally were as follows:

Commander, Mrs. Ida E. Snyder, Riverside Review, No. 5; leut. commander for the rally were as follows:

Commander, Mrs. Ida E. Snyder, Riverside Review, No. 6; leut. commander for the rally were as follows:

Commander, Mrs. Ida E. Snyder, Riverside Review, No. 6; leut. commander for the rally were as follows:

Commander, Mrs. Ida E. Snyder, Riverside Review, No. 1; chappiain, Mrs. Alice D. Brewster, Baltimors Review, No. 1; inday-at-arms, Mrs. Mrs. Ida E. Morganweck, Fulton-Review, No. 5; inday-at-arms, Mrs. Sie Morganweck, Fulton-Review, No. 1

National Review, No. 1, gave a National Review, No. 1. gave a party for children from one to twelve years Friday evening at Pythian Temple. All the children taking part were dressed in costume. Prizes were given for the prettiest and the most comical. Eugenia Ireland received the first prize and Margaret Hammond the second. Otho Hammond was given the prize for being the funniest. Refreshments were served.

being the funniest. Refreshments were served.

Twenty members of National Review took the trip to Baltimore. The day was spent in sightseeing, and in the evening the Baltimore Review put or the second degree. Dancing followed The review expects to entertain the Baltimoreans in October. Norfolk Review has challenged National Review for a membership contest, the one winning to receive $25.

National Review will hold a memorial servise at its next meeting.

National Review will hold a memorial servise at its next meeting.

Miss Vallene Aughinbaugh, who died recently, was a member of National Review, No. 1, and a member of the drill team. Sixteen members of the team attend the funeral in uniform and wore the colors of the order Wednesday. The services of the order were conducted at the grave by Ladles Palmer, Pieros, Dunn, Walters and Graham.

Woodmen of the World.

Elm Camp No. 8 has decided to take part in the preparedness parade. The uniform rank has been especially requested to attend. Those who will take part will assemble at the Old Masonic Temple, 9th and F streets, not later

W. A. Fraser Camp, No. 14; will meet tomorrow evening for the initiation of twenty-six members. The degree team of Elm Camp No. 8 will exemplify the protection degree.

Mount Vernon Camp, No. 5, was installed in this city recently.

National Camp, No. 12, met Wednesday. The consul commander appointed a committee to take charge of the excursion to Marshall Half July 18. A committee of three was appointed to organize a company of uniform rank men to be attached to the 103d regiment. Plans were made for purchasing uniforms and equipment.

All sovereigns of the W. O. W. have been requested to assemble, each with a small American flag, at the old Masonic Temple, 9th and F streets northwest, Wednesday at 8:30 a.m. to participate in the preparedness parade, including in the preparedness parade, including in the A. B. C. D. and the hospital in the preparedness parade, inclu-companies A. B. C. D, and the host corps of the 103d regiment U. R.

Oak Camp Wednesday evening, at Northeast Temple, admitted eight new members and received afteen new ap-plications.

It was agreed that the camp would

It was agreed that the camp would unveil the monument to Mr. Lapidas, who is interred near the city of Baltimore, as soon as arrangements can be made. Past Consul Commander W. G. Stott will be in charge of the unveiling.

It was unanimously agreed that the camp should enter the preparedness parade June 14. As the uniform rank of the camp is giving an excursion to Marshall Hall on that date the races for prizes will not be contested until the arrival of the boat on the 2:30 p.m. Three prizes will be offered for the best dancers on the floor at 8 p.m. and a voting contest for the most popular woodman in the District will be held. Refreshments were served.

EISINGER'S ICE CREAM

Is superior to other creams in flavor, and superippes, Special Prices to Ledges : Flates, Harbins and Special Pres With All Orders. Phone M. 2767-235 G St. Oscar R. Woher, Minaper.

HALL 1413 PARK ROAD REMODELED FOR LODGES
Large Hall-2 Antercom

Few Nights Open Low Rout
TYLER & RUTHERFORD, Inc.
817 15th St. N.W.